Afraid of Ghosts

Many people are afraid of ghosts. Few people are afraid of germs. Yet the ghost is a fancy and the germ is a fact. If the germ could be magnified the germ is a lact. It he germ could be negarited a size equal to its terrors it would appear more terrible than any fire-breathing dragon. Germs can't be avoided. They are in the air we breather, the water we drink.

The germ can only prosper when the condition of the system gives it free scope to establish itself and develop. When there is a deficiency of vital force, languor, restlessness, a sallow check, a hollow eye, when the appetite is poor and the sleep is proken, it is time to guard against the germ. You can fortify the body against all germs by the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It increases the vital power, cleanses the system of clogging impurities, enriches the blood, puts the stomach and organs of digestion and nutrition in working condition, so that the germ finds no weak or tainted spot in which to breed.

St. Anthony's Carnival Started With Address by Mayor

With a flourish of music and an impressive address by Mayor Richardson, who was introduced by Father Hannigan, St. Anthony's Carnival, given in the First Regiment Atmory for the benefit of the Franciscan Sisters, was started last night, a goodly crowd gathering for the "first night" performance.

gathering for the "first night" performance.

Mayor Richardson spoke in his usual felicitous manner, complimenting the workers on the wax in which they had arranged the armory, their booths and the things they are to sell, and wishing for them the grearest success in raising a sufficient fund to start the Franciscan Sisters in their new home.

Many booths, all presided over by charming saleshades, are arranged around the vast room, and all are tastefully decorated. Over booth No. 1, which is presided over by Mrs. Attenson, is hung an English fing, in token of the fact that the Franciscan Sisters is an English order, and that all the sisters here are English women, some of them only recent arrivals.

Mrs. Halloran's booth is decorated in pink and green, making a very pretty effect; Mrs. J. J. Rankins, in

REDEDIGATION

Impressive Ceremony at Old Jewish Cemetery, With Historic

Address by L. Z. Morris.

Ceremonies incident to the rededication of the old Jewish Cemetery on East Franklin, between Twentieth and Twenty-first Streets, which were postponed from September 7 because of the weather, will take place this afternoon at 4:50 o'clock, rain or shine. If the weather is bad the exercises will be held in the warehouse across the street.

The program will be simple. L. Z. Morris, chairman of the committee in charge of the improvements, will make an introductory address, teiling something of the history of the old burial ground. After this the religious ceremonies will be conducted by Dr. E. N. Callsch, of Beth Ahabah.

This cemetery was presented to members of the Jewish faith during the first term of George Washington as President of the United States by Isalah Isaac, and was recorded in Deed Book No. 1 in the Chancery Court in 1791. Since the last burial there the cemetery has been neglected, and nearly every grave obliterated, so that now only a few names of those buried there are known. The lot has been smoothed over, turfed asd surrounded by granolithic walkways and a handsome fence. The public, irrespective of creed, is invited to be present.
